

It's never too early to book your Christmas Party!

First, enjoy a delicious buffet in our dining room! Then walk through the lobby to our intimate theatre for a wonderful play! After the show, your dinner table awaits you for cabaret!

We present the very funny comedy:

Greetings

November 23 through December 23, 2010

A young man brings his Jewish fiancée home to meet his sweet Catholic mother and his grouchy Catholic father on Christmas Eve, paving the way for what seems to be a most interesting family occasion! As they argue about their differences, an incredible event occurs that causes everyone to realize that there actually is a true bond among them!

Featuring a special Christmas Cabaret from November 23 through December 23!

Group rates are available, and special matinees and evening performances can be arranged.
